MC5 Welcomes Internationally Renowned Workplace Culture Expert, Christopher Ridenhour

As you walk through the hallways, does EVERYONE truly appear as engaged as they do on your website? Imagine the levels of service our external customers would experience if all staff “embraced change”, “owned problems”, and took “personal accountability” for creating a service-driven community. Imagine if every member of every department was committed to the mission, vision, values of the organization. Imagine if every leader took seriously their role as a coach, advocate, and mentor and felt intimately linked to the success of their staff.

As leaders, we have the ability and accountability to close the gap between the promises of the website and reality.

Inspired Leaders, Inspired Teams, Inspired Results! provides a unique leadership experience specifically designed for trailblazers who:

- 1) Recognize they haven't fully reached full potential as role-models for change,
- 2) Need research-based tools for inspiring and motivating colleagues to higher levels of performance and cooperation,
- 3) Seek a clear road to establishing a positive and lasting legacy.
